ARTICLE 5 - COMMITMENT OF CANDIDATES

5.1 By entering the competition, candidates agree to:

- to authorize the use of their data for the presentation and promotion of the Challenge:

All reproductions and representations of the elements making up their file (in particular and without this list being exhaustive: trademarks, drawings, models, photos, copyrights, videos, patents, industrial know-how, etc., including any service providers involved in the operation(s) concerned, etc.) are authorized in all media, whatever the medium, likely to deal with the TILT CHALLENGE 2023 for promotional or informational purposes, as well as for reproduction by the Organisers on the promotional documents of subsequent editions. These uses must be made without any obligation on the part of the Organisers.

- to authorize the use of the image of the participants in the case of a selection within the top 3:

The candidates declare that they are in possession of the authorization from the physical persons participating in the challenge (the students) to use photographs of their person in the communication supports of the Challenge 2023 and the following editions as well as on any support and media, likely to deal with the TILT CHALLENGE 2023 in a promotional or information purpose.

In the case of participants who are minors, the candidates declare that they are in possession of an authorization to use their image from their legal representative.

The Organisers may not under any circumstances be held accountable for any dispute related to the intellectual or industrial property attached to any of the elements making up a participation file for the Challenge or to the right to the image and private life of physical persons participating in the Challenge.

5.2 Non-disclosure upon express request

The Organisers agree not to divulge any information considered confidential by the candidate who has expressly specified it as such in their reply file.

The said information will only be made available to the persons in charge of the organization of the Challenge (employees, experts and service providers of the Organisers, judges) and for the sole purpose of organizing the Challenge and selecting the Nominees and the Winner.

ARTICLE 6 - DESIGNATION OF NOMINEES AND THE WINNER

6.1 Designation of the Nominees

All the files will be examined by a committee composed of members of the Cinov Fédération and Opco Atlas. The committee will make a pre-selection of three candidates who will be asked to defend their project in front of the jury (below referred to as the Nominees).

In making its pre-selection, the committee will base its decision-making on the following criteria:

- The completion of the application
- An internationally recognizable connection with the identification of a partner school with which the project will be think of
- A certain relevance for the first shared vision

- The Nominees will be informed of their pre-selection via an email to the addresses mentioned in the application file in order to be available to defend their project in front of the jury on 17 May 2023 - time to further define yourself, in person or on video.

The Nominees agree not to divulge any information concerning their nomination to third parties until they have been informed by the Organisers themselves.

6.2 Designation of the Winner

The jury will establish the list of winners: Gold / Silver / Bronze. The winner of the TILT CHALLENGE 2023 will be chosen from amongst the Nominees by a jury composed of members selected by the Organisers.

The jury's deliberations are confidential and it will not be required to justify its choices under any circumstances. Its sovereign decisions may not be contested in any way. The members of the judges of the jury may not participate in the vote if they are personally involved with one of the candidates.

The jury reserves the right to designate a tie or not to designate a winner.

The winner will be selected on the basis of the following criteria in particular:

- The relevance of the proposed project
- The innovative nature of the project
- The sustainability and reproducibility of the proposal
- The quality and completeness of the application and its annexes
- As well as the quality of the live presentation to the jury.

6.3 Results

The result will be announced at the end of the Nominees' pitch, which will be held on 17 May 2023 - time to further define yourself in person or on video. The result will then be published on the website :

<https://www.concepteursdavenir.fr/actualites/tiltchallenge>.

It is specified that this pitch and the nomination of the winner may only take place in a digital format if any health or economic reasons make this necessary.
